Facal BRILL

Fort de l'expérience acquise à la rédaction de son premier livre, l'auteur vous suggère une nouvelle aventure dans le monde des mots anciens de notre patrimoine québécois. Cette fois-ci, grâce aux recherches faites dans les années 1960-1970 sur l'ensemble du territoire québécois (Est du Canada) par Gaston Dulong et Gaston Bergeron, et la Société du parler français au Canada (1902-1962), et surtout à la mise en place d'un site Internet facilitant la recherche des mots inventoriés et subventionné par le Bureau de la recherche de la Faculté des lettres de l'Université Laval (1998-1999), il nous est permis de retracer de vieux mots avec facilité, d'authentifier leurs usages selon les régions, mais aussi d'en connaître les variations de sens. Chemin faisant, les références à des ouvrages divers se font plus nombreuses, ce qui enrichit notre connaissance historique et étymologique des substantifs, verbes et expressions explorés. La forme littéraire diffère quelque peu du premier tome: elle se distingue principalement par plus de références aux auteurs québécois, par la présence de la carte géographique du Québec avec ses termes répertoriés en fonction des régions, et finalement par la présentation de mots plus rares dans l'usage actuel de la langue. Le sujet y est traité avec la même passion que dans son livre précédent. Son voyage fait en France en 2007 juste avant l'édition de son dernier livre l'a remis en contact avec ses sources françaises.

Le Mauvais Langage Corrigé, Ou Recueil Par Ordre Alphabétique D'expressions Et De Phrases Vicieuses Usitées En France Et Notamment À Lyon... Routledge Ahor ! est un recueil de locutions et expressions posant souvent problème aux francophones apprenant l'espagnol. Cet

ouvrage est le fruit d'une collaboration entre un passionné de la langue espagnole - qui a noté au fil de son apprentissage les difficultés auxquelles il pouvait se heurter - et une agrégée et docteur en espagnol. Alors que l'espagnol ne semble présenter que des difficultés modérées en ce qui concerne le vocabulaire et la grammaire, les expressions toutes faites et les combinaisons de mots peuvent s'avérer trompeuses, surprenantes, voire obscures parce qu'elles n'ont souvent aucun rapport avec le sens des mots isolés, ou encore parce qu'elles font appel à d'autres images. Ainsi, par exemple, coger signifie "prendre" et palabra "la parole, le mot" mais coger(le) a uno la palabra veut dire "prendre au mot" et non "prendre la parole" qui se dit tomar la palabra... quant à decir dos palabras, se traduit par "dire un mot". Facile à utiliser en raison de son classement alphabétique, cet ouvrage espagnol-français permet de découvrir certaines spécificités de la langue espagnole et d'accroître sa capacité d'expression à l'écrit comme à l'oral. Ahora ! est donc un outil d'apprentissage et de révision pour les élèves de lycée, les élèves des classes préparatoires et les étudiants de licence (LLCE, LEA) ou de BTS, mais aussi un aide-mémoire pour les personnes en activité et les autodidactes. Ideologies of Language (RLE Linguistics A: General Linguistics) Martinus Nijhoff Publishers

Is the study of language ideologically neutral? If so, is this study objective and autonomous? One of the most cherished assumptions of modern academic linguistics is that the study of language is, or should be, ideologically neutral. This professed ideological neutrality goes hand-in-hand with claims of scientific objectivity and explanatory autonomy. Ideologies of Language counters these claims and assumptions by demonstrating not only their descriptive inaccuracy but also their conceptual incoherence.

Lyonnoisismes, ou recueil d'expressions et de phrases vicieuses usitées à Lyon, employées même quelquefois par nos meilleurs écrivains, etc Martinus Nijhoff Publishers

This book offers a new perspective on the cultural politics of the Napoleonic Empire by exploring the issue of language within four pivotal institutions - the school, the army, the courtroom and the church. Based on wide-ranging research in archival and published sources, Stewart McCain demonstrates that the Napoleonic State was in reality fractured by disagreements over how best to govern a population characterized by enormous linguistic diversity. Napoleonic officials were not simply cultural imperialists; many acted as culture-brokers, emphasizing their familiarity with the local language to secure employment with the state, and pointing to linguistic and cultural particularism to justify departures from which what others might have considered desirable practice by the regime. This book will be of interest to scholars of the Napoleonic Empire, and of European state-building and nationalisms. Finishing Touches Ed. di Storia e Letteratura Post allgemein / Postbetrieb.

Errors are information. In contrastive linguistics, they are thought to be caused by unconscious transfer of mother tongue structures to the system of the target language and give information about both systems. In the interlanguage hypothesis of second language acquisition, errors are indicative of the different intermediate learning levels and are useful pedagogical feedback. In both cases error analysis is an essential methodological tool for diagnosis and evaluation of the language acquisition process. Errors, too, give information in psychoanalysis (e.g., the Freudian slip), in language universal research, and in other fields of linguistics, such as linguistic change. This bibliography is intended to stimulate study into cross-language, cross-discipline and cross-theoretical, as well as for language universal, use of the numerous, but sometimes hard to come by, error analysis studies. 5398 titles covering the period 1578 up to 1990 (with work in more than 144 languages and language families) are cited, cross-referenced, and described. The subject areas covered are numerous.

For example: Theoretical Linguistics (Linguistic Typology, Cognitive Linguistics), Historical Linguistics (Language Change), Applied Linguistics (e.g. Speech Disorders), Translation, Mother Tongue Acquisition, Foreign Language Learning (Negative Transfer, Intralingual and Interlingual Errors), Psychoanalysis (Slips of the Tongue), Typography, Shorthand, Clinical Linguistics and Speech Pathology, Reading Research, Automatic Error Detection, Contact Linguistics (Code-switching, Interference), etc.
