Eldridge only wants to help, but she doesn't know how. When Max

climbs through her window one night, Jill knows she shouldn't let him kiss her. But she can't resist, and when they're caught in the act by her dad, Jill swears it'll never happen again. With a new baby sibling on the way, her parents fighting all the time, and her dream of culinary school suddenly up in the air, Jill starts spending more and more time with Max. Will Jill follow her heart, and allow their friendship to blossom into something more, or will she listen to her head and stop kissing Max
