"For this is the covenant that I will make with the Church. After those days," says the Lord; "I will put my laws into their mind, I will also write them on their heart. I will be their God, and they will be my people. They will not teach every man his fellow citizen, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for all will know me, from their least to their greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness. I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more." In that he says, "A new testament", he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away. (Hebrews 8:10-13

The Bible calls Jesus a friend of sinners. What does that mean? In Friend of Sinners, Rich Wilkerson Jr. shows readers the profound implications of the reality that Jesus calls us "friends, not because of who we are or what we have done, but because of who he is. Robert Warren pastors Faith, Hope, and Love Ministries, a church located in Suffolk, Virginia. Born December 2, 1950, he was raised in a small area of Suffolk, known as Driver. Upon graduating from John F. Kennedy High School, located in Suffolk, VA; he attended C. H. Mason Bible College and The Virginia Seminary and College in Lynchburg, Virginia. Happily married to the loving Mary Baker Warren, a woman, after God's own heart; the two reside in Suffolk, Virginia. Robert Warren is a lover of people who loves preaching God's word and is a poet at heart. His inspiration for this book came from a dream he once had several years ago. In this dream he saw the light that David had seen in Psalm 119:105 appear where it says; Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Bright, beaming, and shaped like a ball; men were passing this spherical ball of light to one another.

Seemingly to had never hit the ground; these men had come from everywhere and every walk of life frantically enjoying this bright, beaming ball of light. "What does this mean?" You ask! The bright, beaming ball of light represents God's word and how he wants us to pass it on to EVERY man, woman, and child. But don't just pass it on needlessly, find pleasure in it! Enjoy passing on God's Word so that others may see your shining joy and want to pass it on also. Stay focused, don't faint, and remember to keep the ball of light going, never dropping it. When we pass His Word, lives are changed. Thus, resulting in the writing of this book, God's Heavenly Messages. This is one way I have chosen to pass God's Word around, believing it will help people change their lives and come to know Jesus Christ.

My Best Friend's Exorcism Thomas Nelson

For so many of us, our friends are like family members--we lean on them through our highest highs and our lowest lows--but sometimes those friendships don't turn out quite as we hoped. Bible teacher Kelly Needham debunks our world's constricted, narrow view of friendship and casts a richer, more life-giving, biblical vision for friendship. In Friend-ish, Kelly Needham reminds us that we were called to more than halfhearted friendships and lukewarm connections. We need something more stable, secure, and sacred. We were designed for real friendship--but the difficult truth is that too many of us are settling for less. Kelly deconstructs what Scripture says about the gift of friendship and takes a closer look at the distorted view that most of us have instead. As she shares the lessons she's learned from experience, Kelly paints her own glorious vision of what Christian friendship could look like. With hard-fought wisdom, a clear view of Scripture, and a been-there perspective, Friend-ish teaches us how to: Recognize symptoms of idolatry and toxic dependency Boldly ask for what we need from our community of friends Understand and address the problems that arise in friendship--from neediness to discord Recognize when it's time to end an unhealthy friendship Reorient toward the purposeful, loving relationships we all crave that ultimately bring us closer to God Find the friends you need and start to become that friend for others Join Kelly as she challenges you to view your chosen family in a new light, gain a vision of friendship according to Jesus, and finally enjoy friendships as God intended.
